If you become aware you have provided incorrect information you must contact the accredited body as soon as possible.

PRIVACY NOTICE

How will my information be used?

The ACIC and Australian police agencies

The ACIC and Australian police agencies use the information on this form and the applicant's identity documentation:

- › to disclose police information relating to you, to CrimCheck Ltd
- › to update records held about you
- › for law enforcement, including purposes set out in the Australian Crime Commission Act 2002 (Cth)

CrimCheck

CrimCheck uses the personal information collected in this form to request a nationally coordinated criminal history check and to assure itself of your identity. CrimCheck may have a legislative basis for the collection, use and disclosure of your personal information and police information to a third party.

CrimCheck must advise you if your personal information or police information will be transferred or supplied to a location outside Australia, known as the permitted offshore transfer arrangement. If this applies, the legal name and location of the overseas entity are listed in this form.

You can contact CrimCheck for more information on the nationally coordinated criminal history check process and how your personal information is handled:

How do I dispute my result?

If you do not agree with the results of your nationally coordinated criminal history check, contact the accredited body or, if applicable, its legal entity customer, using the contact details on page 5 and tell them you want to dispute the result.

The accredited body or its legal entity customer accepts and escalates all disputes.

DOCUMENTS REQUIRED

Minimum identity requirements

You must provide four documents with your completed form to confirm your identity:

- › one commencement document to confirm your birth in Australia or arrival in Australia
- › one primary and two secondary documents to show the use of your identity in the community.

The Legal Entity Customer listed on page 5 will use these documents to verify your identity against the personal information you have provided on this form. The personal information contained in the identity documents you provide will be used to conduct a nationally coordinated criminal history check, as you consent to in Section C.

The documentation you provide must include evidence of your full name and date of birth and a photograph of you. The commencement and primary documents provided must include a photo of you. If your commencement and primary documents do not include a photograph you must submit a passport-style photograph certified by a person listed in Schedule 2 of the Statutory Declarations Regulations 1993 (Cth).

Commencement documents

- a. full Australian birth certificate (not an extract or birth card)

Change of name

If you provide identity documents using a former name, you must provide evidence of your name change. This means providing a change of name certificate issued by the Australian Registry of Births, Deaths and Marriages or an Australian marriage certificate issued by a state or territory, in addition to your four identity documents. Church or celebrant-issued certificates are not accepted.

Special provisions for proof of identity

The ACIC recognises that in exceptional circumstances you may not be able to meet the minimum proof of identity requirements.

Please contact the organisation that supplied you with this form to assess your ability to meet the requirements and determine the most suitable method to confirm your identity.

HOW TO SUBMIT THIS FORM

Before submitting this form, ensure all sections are complete and that you have signed and dated the form.

Once completed, please print the form, sign the required fields and return it to the organisation listed as the Legal Entity Customer on page 5.

SECTION A – PERSONAL INFORMATION

A1 Please read this before answering the following questions.

You must disclose all names you have been known by throughout your life, including your primary name, name before marriage (maiden name), and other previous names and/or alias names.

With each additional name you provide, you must include your family name, first given names and other given names (if applicable).

Example:

When Lucianne was born, she was given the first name Lucianne, second given name Jane and surname of Jones. When she was married, she changed her surname to Smith. Lucianne commonly uses the name Lucy when introducing herself in the community.

As such, Lucianne has four known names—her current name, pre-marriage name, the alias name she used before she got married and the alias name she uses now. Lucianne needs to provide all four names when completing this form, as follows:

Current name Smith, Lucianne Jane
Pre-marriage name Jones, Lucianne Jane
Alias name Smith, Lucy Jane
Alias name Jones, Lucy Jane

SECTION C – INFORMED CONSENT

What is informed consent?

Your informed consent is needed before an accredited body can request a nationally coordinated criminal history check on you. Your informed consent means you:

- › have read and understood the information provided in this form about how your personal information and any police information relevant to you will be handled and disclosed
- › provide your permission for CrimCheck to request a nationally coordinated criminal history check on your behalf
- › provide your permission for the accredited body to disclose your information to any organisation listed in C1 of this form.

How do I provide my informed consent?

An important aspect of providing informed consent is that you understand what you are consenting to. It is important that you read the consent statements in question C2 and, where required, get clarification from the accredited body or its legal entity customer, to ensure complete understanding.

You must then sign and date this form at C2, to give your informed consent.

C1 Please read this before answering the following questions.

Question C1 provides the details of the organisations to whom your personal and police information will be disclosed to.

In C2, you will provide your informed consent for your personal and police information to be disclosed to the ACIC, Australian police agencies, law enforcement agencies, and any organisations detailed in question C1.
